STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Nawab Salar Jung Bahadur (Administration of Assets) Ordinance, 1949, was issued on the 12th November, 1949 to empower the Salar Jung Estate Committee constituted by the Hyderabad Government to administer effectively the properties of the late Nawab outside the State, pending a decision on the question of succession to the Estate. A decision on this point will take some time and it is necessary that in the meantime the Salar Jung Estate Committee should continue to exercise the powers conferred on it by the Ordinance of 1949. The Bill incorporates the provisions of the Ordinance with necessary changes.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill is one of those periodical measures by which enactments which have ceased to be in force or the retention whereof as separate Acts is unnecessary are repealed or by which formal errors detected in enactments are corrected. The notes which follow explain the circumstances underlying the items of the Bill.

Clause 4 of the Bill contains the precautionary provisions which it is usual to include in Bills of this kind.

B. R. AMBEDKAR.

NEW DELHI,

The 23rd March, 1950.

Notes on Clauses

Clause 2, the First Schedule.—The Acts and Ordinances which are specified in the First Schedule are either spent or contain provisions of a purely amending nature which, by virtue of section 6A of the General Clauses Act, 1897, can now be removed from the Statute-book.

Clause 3, the Second Schedule—The Indian Penal Code.—The definition of "bank note" in the Explanation to section 489A should also apply to section 489E, which was inserted by Act VI of 1943. Hence the amendment.

The Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867.—The Press Law Repeal and Amendment Act, 1922 (XIV of 1922) changed the words "periodicals containing news" to "newspapers" in the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867. The present amendment makes a similar change in the preamble to this Act.

The Indian Arms Act, 1878.—The third paragraph of section 14 of the Indian Arms Act, 1878, as originally enacted, provided for the deposit of firearms, etc., but it was repealed by Act XII of 1891. The reference to section 14 in clause (i) of section 19 is therefore no longer relevant and is being omitted.

The Amending Act, 1897.—The Sylhet Act, 1874, was repealed by the Bengal and Assam Laws Act, 1905 (VII of 1905). Hence the omission of the entry relating to the Sylhet Act from the Amending Act, 1897.

The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.—This amendment corrects a clerical error which had crept into clause (17) of section 3 of the Criminal Law (Removal of Racial Discriminations) Act, 1949, by which the second column in Schedule II to that Code was amended by the omission of certain words.

The Indian Ports Act, 1908.—The expression “any port within the territories administered by the Governor of Fort Saint George in Council” includes all the ports in the State of Madras and also the ports in the district of Ganjam which is now in the State of Orissa. Hence, at the suggestion of the Government of Orissa, the expression is now being changed as proposed in the Bill.

The Commercial Documents Evidence Act, 1939.—The reference to “British India Load Line Certificate” in the Schedule is no longer appropriate and is being altered to “Indian Load Line Certificate” as in the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923.

The Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.—The word “may” which was inadvertently omitted by an earlier Act is being restored.

The Displaced Persons (Legal Proceedings) Act, 1949.—The reference to “Order XXI of the Code of Civil Procedure” is being made more precise.

The Railway Protection Act, 1886.—The extent clause is being amended so as to make it clear that the Act applies to the whole of the State of Madras, including the merged territories, one of which, namely, Pudukkottai, is being served by a railway.
